DETAILS
INTERVIEW OF WITNESSES:

About 1947, 2 Mar 04, SA 67C 6 62 and SA 67C 6 62 interviewed SPC 772ad Military Police Company, Taunton, Massachusetts, regarding his knowledge and activity as the Medical Specialist assigned to support the treatment of detainees within the Bagram Collection Point (BCP), Bagram, Afghanistan. He provided a sworn statement in which he stated during his deployment with the 3rd Platoon, 772ad Military Police (MP) Company, his platoon was identified to remain at Bagram, Afghanistan, while the remainder of the unit moved forward to Kabul, Afghanistan. He stated in addition to supporting the 3rd Platoon, 772ad MP Company operations, he also conducted daily sick call support to the detainees within the BCP. This included routine visits to the detainees within the Isolation Cells. He related he could not recall having observed or treated bruises on either. He denied having observed any acts related to the treatment of the detainees, which he considered to be inappropriate. Additionally, he denied any knowledge of any detainees having been physically struck. (See statement for details)

About 1930, 2 Mar 04, SA 67C 6 62 was provided a memorandum which stated he had prepared while deployed in Afghanistan. The memorandum documented the physical condition of three detainees who had been transferred to the BCP from Kandahar, Afghanistan. The memorandum documented allegations by the detainees they had been injured by American Forces while detained in Kandahar, Afghanistan. There was no further identification of the individuals other than “American Forces”. The memorandum was seized as evidence as documented on the DA Form 4137, Evidence/Property Custody Document (EPCD), Voucher number 0004-04. (See EPCD and memorandum for details)

AGENT'S NOTE: The memorandum had a printed security classification of “Secret”, which related he had placed on the document. Upon return to HQ, USACIDC, SA 67C 6 62 coordinated with the Chief, Security Branch, USACIDC, who determined there was no official classification authority which assigned the “Secret” classification to the document and the document contained no classified information. The classification of the document was changed to “For Official Use Only”.

EXHIBIT ( )
I want to make the following statement under oath:

I enlisted on 22 November 1997 as a Combat Medic. I attended basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, MO from Aug of 1998 until 22 October 1998. Upon graduating basic training I reported to Fort Sam Houston, TX for Advanced Individual Training (AIT) from the end of October 1998 until Jan 1999. Upon graduation I reported to my National Guard unit, the 772nd Military Police (MP) Company, Taunton, MA, where I was assigned and served as the Medical Specialist for 3rd Platoon. Then I attended regular weekend drills one weekend a month and two weeks a year until our deployment to Afghanistan.

Sometime in the early part of June 2002 the 772nd received notification that we were getting activated to deploy. It was never officially put out to the soldiers where we deploying to, however we all knew we were going to Afghanistan. We reported for active duty on 7 July 2002, and headed up to Fort Drum, NY on 9 July 2002 to receive our pre-deployment training. All of the training we received in NY was geared towards the MPs. Some of the training included, call for fire; weapons qualification; weapons familiarization with various weapons; movements; very minimal unarmed self-defense training, which was conducted by two of the civilian police officers in our unit. While at Fort Drum I don’t recall attending any kind of training involving the peroneal strike or a compliance blow. For the most part we spent from July to about August 2002 at Fort Drum, NY, primarily waiting to deploy to Afghanistan.

We left Fort Drum, NY on 13 August 2002 and landed in Germany, awaiting transportation to Afghanistan. We left Germany on 17 August 2002 and landed at the Bagram Air Field on either 17 or 18 August 2002. I was deployed to Afghanistan from Aug 02 to Feb 03. I was assigned to Bagram to enter time we were deployed. When the 772nd MP Co. first arrived in Bagram my platoon, 3rd platoon, was selected to remain at Bagram while the rest of the Co. was assigned to Kabul. My primary responsibility while at Bagram was to be a Medic to the 3rd Platoon, 772nd MP Co., as well as to support other missions as the medic. It was an informal agreement between the chain of command that we were still assigned to the 772nd MP Co. performing duties to support the 377th MP Company, who was responsible for running the Bagram Collection Point (BCP). When at the BCP from roughly 0800 hrs local Bagram time to about 1000 hours local Bagram time I conducted sick call procedures. I also conducted sick call from about 1800 local Bagram time to about 2000 hrs local Bagram time. For the sick call it was pretty much the same thing everyday. Different detainees had prescribed medications from the Doctors, COL [REDACTED] and LTC [REDACTED] and there were others whose names I cannot recall. Most of the prescriptions that the detainees received were for prescription antacid. There were a few others but again, for the most part the primary complaint the detainees reported during sick call was upset stomach caused by the change in their diet. There were a few others who required other types of medical attention due to injuries sustained prior to their arrival at the BCP. I went from cell to cell using a prescription listing to ensure that I would provide the right...
detainee with the prescribed medication. While I was at the cells if the detainees would report additional complaints, I would provide them with aspirin and anything else within my abilities and scope of responsibility. If a detainee had a complaint outside my scope of responsibility, I would inform one of the doctors and we would see the detainee for treatment. When I conducted sick call I always took an interpreter with me to ensure that I could communicate with the detainees. If there were any English-speaking detainees I would call them to me to assist. I started at the ground floor in the general population and worked my way up to each of the isolation cell. When the isolation cells were added downstairs I conducted sick call at those cells prior to moving to the upstairs isolation cells. The isolation cells downstairs were added approximately three quarters of the way through my tour in Afghanistan. When I conducted sick call in the isolation cells, I would specifically ask the guard if there was anyone who had made any medical complaints that I needed to be made aware of. If the guard gave me someone who had reported something to them, that detainee would get priority. If the guard had no complaints to report, I would go through each individual isolation cell and check on each detainee. When the Military Intelligence (MI) personnel were interrogating a detainee, and they were made aware of a medical complaint, they would come to me directly and I would attend to the detainee accordingly. Sometimes the MI personnel would call me to sort of befrend the detainee to sort of make them feel better by giving a band-aid or showing them that we were concerned for their welfare. After the death of the second detainee as a reaction, someone in the chain of command directed that a medic be present overnight at the BCP in case someone needed to be cared for. Usually the medical individual who slept at the BCP at night was gone by the time I arrived for duty at about 0800 local Bagram time. However, if there was someone or something that I needed to care for the outgoing medic would leave the complaints written in the sick call book along with the care they provided so that I could continue to either care for the detainee or further monitor their progress. This procedure was the same when we had to leave instructions to the doctors or if the doctors had directions for something they wanted the medic’s to do for the detainees. Additionally, some of the detainees refused to drink water as a result of a cultural belief. Others were dehydrated. In those instances, when the detainees refused to drink water I would administer fluids by using an intravenous (IV) injection to re-hydrate them. I would continue to monitor fluid intake into the detainee until their blood pressure returned to normal. When I administered an IV for a detainee I would either use lactated ringers’ (LR) solution or normal saline (NS).

When the first detainee, PUC [redacted] whom CID has identified as Mr. [redacted], remembers an MP came to my tent to wake me up. I cannot remember who the MP that woke me up was. He told me that PUC [redacted] was unresponsive and not breathing. At 6Z:5:66-3 that point I told him that he needed to call an ambulance and just get the detainee to the hospital. I also told him, “What are you getting me for,” because it was over my head. I felt that he should be wasting time waking me up when he should have immediately called for an ambulance and have the detainee care for by a medical doctor who could do a lot more for the detainee than I could in a situation like this. I went into work the next day and followed my usual morning routine for sick call. And I delivered medications just as I would have any other day. I did hear at some point that the detainee had officially passed away, but I cannot remember specifically when that was. No one was talking about it, the death of Mr. [redacted] in terms of what 6Z:3:66-3 caused the death.

When the second detainee, PUC [redacted] whom CID has identified as Mr. [redacted], I do not remember any thing at all. I think the reason I do not remember too many details about either of the two detainees is mostly because they were both at the BCP for such a short time; and for the most part we received hundreds of detainees while I was there who needed medical treatment for injuries sustained prior to arriving at the BCP.

Q: SA \[b7c-3, b6-3\] and SA \[b7c-4, b6-4\]?
A: SP\[b7c-4, b6-4\].

Q: How far from the BCP was your tent located?
A: I'd say for the first three months roughly, it was maybe 500 yards away, by thanksgiving we moved to the new tents, which were located by the airfield.

Q: Did you ever administer an IV to either of the two detainees that died?
A: I don't remember any medical treatment to either of them since they were there for such a short period of time. But any treatment that I may have given them would have been documented in the medical section logbooks.

Q: What is Lactated Ringers and what is it used for?
A: It's an IV fluid that is used to restore electrolytes, blood sugar, and fluids to the patient.

Q: Did you ever witness anyone physically abuse the detainees?
A: No.

Q: Did you ever witness any of the MPs administer peronal strikes to a combative detainee?
A: No.

Q: Did you ever witness any of the MPs administer personal strikes to a restrained detainee?
A: No.

Q: Did you ever see any of the chain of command present at the BCP during any altercations involving the detainees?
A: There was a detainee who was mentally retarded and at times he would become non-compliant, and there was an NCOIC on the floor.

Q: Did any of the detainees ever become combative with you?
A: No.

Q: Did you ever see any of the detainees in a standing restraint position in either the air lock or the isolation cells, if so, please describe the position or positions that you witnessed?
A: I witnessed the detainees handcuffed to the wall of the airlock. The cuffs would be run through the slats of the air lock and cuffed to the detainee in such a manner that their hands were level with their heads.

Q: Did you ever hear any rumors of detainee abuse at the BCP?
A: No.

Q: Did you ever hear any rumors about the use of steroids by either the MP or MI personnel?
A: No.

Q: Did anyone ever complain to you about the treatment of detainees at the BCP?
A: No.

Q: Earlier you stated that you felt that eventually a detainee would die at the BCP, please explain your comment?
A: I figured that the death was bound to happen, since the average age of an Afghani is about fifty years of age, and many of them were about that old when they were brought into the BCP. I kind of thought that it would be only a matter of time before one of the detainees would die as a result of stress or other complications to their health.

Q: There was an incident involving a physical altercation between Mr. \[b7c-3, b6-3\] and some of the MPs in the air lock where Mr. \[b7c-3, b6-3\] received and injury to the bridge of his nose.
his nose, do you recall the incident, and do you recall treating Mr. for this injury?
A: I do not remember ever treating PUC for that injury.
Q: Did you provide any treatment or medications to Mr.?
A: Not that I can remember.
Q: Did you provide any treatment or medications to Mr.?
A: Not that I can remember.
Q: Were you present during the inprocessing medical screening of Mr. and Mr.?
A: I would have to say yes.
Q: What were your responsibilities during the medical inprocessing screening?
A: I checked them for physical characteristics such as moles, tattoos, scars, cuts, bruises, etc. I obtained their medical history, through the use of an interpreter. I'd document if they were on any medications and if they had undergone any surgeries in the past.
Q: Did Mr. make any specific medical complaint that you treated?
A: Not that I can remember, if I did I would be documented somewhere. I don't know how accurate the record keeping process was after I left the BCP, but while I was there it was all documented.
Q: Did Mr. make any specific medical complaint that you treated?
A: Not that I can remember, if he did, I reacted to it by administering to it and it should be documented somewhere.
Q: Did you treat either Mr. or Mr. for bruises while they were housed within the isolation cells?
A: Not that I can remember.
Q: Did any detainees report the MPs or other U.S. forces were abusing them?
A: No.
Q: Did you treat any detainees for bruising, which they claimed was caused by being struck by U.S. military forces?
A: Some of them complained during the inprocessing, that the forces that captured them stuck them. But once they were at the BCP they never complained of any guard striking them.
Q: Did you ever observe any U.S. personnel strike a detainee?
A: No.
Q: Do you recall treating Mr. for an injury to his nose, which was re-injured during a scuffle with the MPs?
A: Not that I recall. I treated a number of lacerations or wounds that needed bandages, but none that were detainee specific.
Q: Do you have anything else to add to this statement?
A: No.

Memorandum for Record

SUBJECT: Late Submission of Evidence / Classification Marking on Evidence

1. Between 1 - 4 March 04, SA was TDY to Boston, MA to conduct investigative interviews related to ROI 0137-02-CID 369-23534 and 0134-02-CID 639-23533. During the course of the investigative activity, SA seized a memorandum for record, which was authored by SPC.

2. The seized evidence was not released to the evidence custodian within 24 hours due to the case agent being TDY until 4 Mar 04. On 5 Mar 04, SA attempted to coordinate with the Evidence Custodian, however, it was determined she was unavailable. SA was again TDY 6-8 Mar 04 during which time SA maintained the evidence in a locked container to which he maintained the only access. On 9 Mar 04, Coordination with the staff of the Washington Metropolitan Major Procurement Fraud Office determined the evidence custodian was TDY to training and would not return until 15 Mar 04. The evidence was released to the evidence custodian on 15 Mar 04.

3. During initial review of the evidence, it was noted the marking of “Secret” appeared printed at the top of the memorandum. During interview of SPC, it was determined that he had marked the document with the security classification of “Secret”. SPC stated the reason he had placed the classification on the document was that he believed all the information and documents which were generated related to activity and personnel related to the detainee mission within Afghanistan was classified. A review of the information determined no facts, which carried a security classification of “Secret”, were documented within the memorandum.

4. On 4 Mar 04, SA coordinated with Mr., Security Manager, HQ, USA CIDC, who was briefed on the circumstances related to the seizing of the document. Mr. marked the document with a security classification of “For Official Use Only”.

Here is what we have for BT-875-4, 876-4:

Name:
DOB: 1977-8-31
ISN#:
Captured 7 Sep 02 by TF-32 in the Bermal Valley ( Vicinity of Shkin), AF.
Released on 4 Nov 02.

I looked at the map and SHKIN is along the PK border within the Paktika Province of AF. I looked at the TRDC report in order to determine when they were released/repatriated. One was sent to GTMO, the other two were released after about one month (may explain why photos weren't available). 875-4, 876-4
