AN ACT ESTABLISHING A COMPREHENSIVE JUVENILE JUSTICE AND WELFARE SYSTEM, CREATING THE JUVENILE JUSTICE AND WELFARE COUNCIL UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

TITLE I
GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

CHAPTER 1
TITLE, POLICY AND DEFINITION OF TERMS

Section 1. Short Title and Scope. - This Act shall be known as the "Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006." It shall cover the different stages involving children at risk and children in conflict with the law from prevention to rehabilitation and reintegration.

Section 2. Declaration of State Policy. - The following State policies shall be observed at all times:

(a) The State recognizes the vital role of children and youth in nation building and shall promote and protect their physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual and social well-being. It shall inculcate in the youth patriotism and nationalism, and encourage their involvement in public and civic affairs.

(b) The State shall protect the best interests of the child through measures that will ensure the observance of international standards, especially those to which the Philippines is a party. Proceedings before any authority shall be conducted in the best interest of the child and in a manner which allows the child to participate and to express himself/herself freely. The participation of children in the program and policy formulation and implementation related to juvenile justice and welfare shall be ensured by the concerned government agency.

(c) The State likewise recognizes the right of children to assistance, including proper care and nutrition, and special protection from all forms of neglect, abuse, cruelty and exploitation, and other conditions prejudicial to their development.

(d) Pursuant to Article 40 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, the State recognizes the right of every child, whether alleged, adjudged, or recognized as having infringed the penal law to be treated in a manner consistent with the promotion of dignity and worth, taking into account the child’s age and desirability of promoting his/her reintegration. Whenever appropriate and desirable, the State shall adopt measures for dealing with such children without resorting to judicial proceedings, providing that human rights and legal safeguards are fully respected. It shall ensure that children are dealt with in a manner appropriate to their well-being by providing for, among others, a variety of disposition measures such as care, guidance and supervision orders, counseling, probation, foster care, education and vocational training programs and other alternatives to institutional care.

(e) The administration of the juvenile justice and welfare system shall take into consideration the cultural and religious perspectives of the Filipino people, particularly the indigenous peoples and the Muslims, consistent with the protection of the rights of children belonging to shall apply the principles of restorative justice in all its laws, policies and programs applicable to children in conflict with the law.

Construction of this Act. - In case of doubt, the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Act, including its implementing rules and regulations (IRRs), shall be construed liberally in favor of the child in conflict with the law.

Section 4. Definition of Terms. - The following terms as used in this Act shall be defined as follows:

(a) “Bail” refers to the security given for the release of the person in custody of the law, furnished by him/her or a bondsman, to guarantee his/her appearance before any court. Bail may be given in the form of corporate security, property bond, cash deposit, or recognizance.

(b) “Best Interest of the Child” refers to the totality of the circumstances and conditions which are most congenial to the survival, protection, and feelings of security of the child and most encouraging to the child's physical, psychological and emotional development. It also means the least detrimental available alternative for safeguarding the growth and development of the child.

(c) “Child” refers to a person under the age of eighteen (18) years.

(d) “Child at Risk” refers to a child who is vulnerable to and at the risk of committing criminal offenses because of personal, family, and social circumstances, such as, but not limited to, the following:

   (1) being abused by any person through sexual, physical, psychological, mental, economic or any other means and the parents or guardian refuse, are unwilling, or unable to provide protection for the child;

"Youth Rehabilitation Center" refers to a 24-hour residential care facility managed by the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), LGUs, licensed and/or accredited NGOs monitored by the DSWD, which provides care, treatment and rehabilitation services for children in conflict with the law. Rehabilitation services are provided under the guidance of a trained staff cared for under a structured therapeutic environment with the end view of reintegrating them into their families as socially functioning individuals. Physical mobility of residents of said centers may be restricted pending court disposition of their charges against them.

"Victimless Crimes" refers to offenses where there is no private offended party.

CHAPTER 2
PRINCIPLES IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUVENILE JUSTICE AND WELFARE of the Child in Conflict with the Law. - Every child in conflict with the law shall have the following rights, includ

1. Not to be subjected to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment;

2. Not to be imposed a sentence of capital punishment or life imprisonment, without the possibility of release;

3. Not to be deprived, unlawfully or arbitrarily, of his/her liberty; detention or imprisonment being a disposition of last resort, and which shall be for the shortest appropriate period of time;

4. To be treated with humanity and respect, for the inherent dignity of the person, and in a manner which takes into account the needs of a person of his/her age. In particular, a child deprived of liberty shall be separated from adult offenders at all times. He/She shall be conveyed separately to or from court. He/She shall await hearing of his/her own case in a separate holding area. A child in conflict with the law shall have the right to maintain contact with his/her family through correspondence and visits, save in exceptional circumstances;

5. Prompt access to legal and other appropriate assistance, as well as the right to challenge the legality of the deprivation of his/her liberty before a court or other competent, independent and impartial authority, and to a prompt decision on such action;

6. Bail and recognizance, in appropriate cases;

7. To testify as a witness in his/her own behalf under the rule on examination of a child witness;

8. To have his/her privacy respected fully at all stages of the proceedings;

9. Diversion if he/she is qualified and voluntarily avails of the same;

10. To be imposed a judgment in proportion to the gravity of the offense where his/her best interest, the rights of the victim are all taken into consideration by the court, under the principle of restorative justice;

11. To have restrictions on his/her personal liberty limited to the minimum, and where discretion is given by law to the court whether to impose fine or imprisonment, the imposition of fine being preferred as the more appropriate penalty;
in general, the right to automatic suspension of sentence;

to probation as an alternative to imprisonment, if qualified under the Probation Law;

o be free from liability for perjury, concealment or misrepresentation; and ts as provided for under existing laws, rules and regulations.

Sec. 6. Minimum Age of Criminal Responsibility.

- A child fifteen (15) years of age or under at the time of the commission of the offense shall be exempt from criminal liability. However, the child shall be subjected to an intervention program pursuant to Section 2.

- A child above fifteen (15) years but below eighteen (18) years of age shall likewise be exempt from criminal liability and be subjected to an intervention program, unless he/she has acted with discernment, in which case, such child shall be subjected to the appropriate proceedings with this Act.

- The exemption from criminal liability herein established does not include exemption from civil liability, which shall be enforced with existing laws.

- The child in conflict with the law shall enjoy the presumption of minority. He/She shall enjoy all rights with the law until he/she is proven to be eighteen (18) years old or older. The age of a child may be determined by the child's birth certificate, baptismal certificate or any other pertinent documents. In the absence of these documents, age may be based on information from the child himself/herself, testimonies of other persons, the physical appearance of the child and other relevant evidence.

- In case of doubt as to the age of the child, it shall be resolved in his/her favor.

- Any person contesting the age of the child in conflict with the law prior to the filing of the information in any appropriate court may file a case in a summary proceeding for the determination of age before the Family Court which shall decide the case within twenty-four (24) hours from receipt of the appropriate pleadings of all interested parties.

- In case of doubt, if a case has been filed against the child in conflict with the law and is pending in the appropriate court, the person shall file a motion to determine the age of the child in the same court where the case is pending. Pending hearing on the said motion, proceedings on the main case shall be suspended.

- In all proceedings, law enforcement officers, prosecutors, judges and other government officials concerned shall exert all efforts in determining the age of the child in conflict with the law.

All Rights Center (CRC). - The existing Child Rights Center of the Commission on Human Rights shall ensure that the rights of children are upheld in accordance with the Constitution and international instruments on human rights through the monitoring of government compliance of all treaty obligations, including the timely and regular submission of reports to treaty bodies, as well as the implementation and dissemination of recommendations and conclusions by government and civil society.

TITLE III
PREVENTION OF JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

CHAPTER 1
THE ROLE OF THE DIFFERENT SECTORS

Family. - The family shall be responsible for the primary nurturing and rearing of children which is critical in delinquency prevention. As far as practicable and in accordance with the procedures of this Act, a child in conflict with the law shall be maintained in his/her family.

Educational System. - Educational institutions shall work together with families, community organizations and the JJWC in the prevention of juvenile delinquency and in the rehabilitation and reintegration of children in conflict with the law. Schools shall provide necessary and individualized educational schemes for children manifesting difficult behavior and children in conflict with the law. In cases where children in conflict with the law are taken into custody or detained in rehabilitation centers, they should be provided the opportunity to continue learning under an alternative learning system with basic literacy programs or non-formal education schemes.

Role of the Mass Media. - The mass media shall play an active role in the promotion of child rights, and delinquency prevention by relaying consistent messages through a balanced approach. Media practitioners shall, therefore, have the duty to maintain the highest critical and professional standards in reporting and covering cases of children in conflict with the law. In all publicity concerning children, the best interest of the child should be the primary concern. Any undue, inappropriate and sensationalized publicity of any case involving a child in conflict with the law is hereby declared a violation of the child's rights.

Establishment and Strengthening of Local Councils for the Protection of Children. - Local Councils for the Protection of Children shall be established in all levels of local government, and where they have already been established, they shall be strengthened within one (1) year from the effectivity of this Act. Membership in the LCPC shall be chosen from among the responsible members of the community, including a representative from the youth sector, as well as representatives from government and private agencies.
The local council shall serve as the primary agency to coordinate with and assist the LGU concerned for the adoption of a comprehensive plan on delinquency prevention, and to oversee its proper implementation.

One percent (1%) of the internal revenue allotment of barangays, municipalities and cities shall be allocated for the strengthening and implementation of the programs of the LCPC: Provided, That the disbursement of the fund shall be made by the LGU concerned.

Sec. 16. Appointment of Local Social Welfare and Development Officer. - All LGUs shall appoint a duly licensed social worker and development officer tasked to assist children in conflict with the law.

Sec. 17. The Sangguniang Kabataan. - The Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) shall coordinate with the LCPC in the formulation and implementation of juvenile intervention and diversion programs in the community.

CHAPTER 2

COMPREHENSIVE JUVENILE INTERVENTION PROGRAM

Sec. 18. Development of a Comprehensive Juvenile Intervention Program. - A Comprehensive juvenile intervention program covering at least a 3-year period shall be instituted in LGUs from the barangay to the provincial level. All LGUs, in coordination with the LCPC, shall call on all sectors concerned, particularly the child-focused institutions, NGOs, educational institutions and government agencies involved in delinquency prevention to participate in the planning and design of juvenile intervention programs. Such programs shall be implemented consistent with the national program formulated and designed by the JJWC. The implementation of the comprehensive juvenile intervention program shall be reviewed and assessed annually by the LGUs in coordination with the LCPC. Results of the assessment shall be submitted by the provincial governments to the JJWC not later than March 30 of every year.

Sec. 19. Community-based Programs on Juvenile Justice and Welfare. - Community-based programs on juvenile justice and welfare shall be instituted by the LGUs through the LCPC, school, youth organizations and other concerned agencies. The LGUs shall provide services which respond to the special needs, problems, interests and concerns of children and which offer appropriate counseling and guidance to them and their families. These programs shall consist of three levels:

1. Primary intervention includes general measures to promote social justice and equal opportunity, which tackle perceived root causes of offending;
2. Secondary intervention includes measures to assist children at risk; and
3. Tertiary intervention includes measures to avoid unnecessary contact with the formal justice system and other measures to prevent re-offending.

TITLE IV

TREATMENT OF CHILDREN BELOW THE AGE OF CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Sec. 20. Children Below the Age of Criminal Responsibility. - If it has been determined that the child taken into custody is fifteen (15) years old or below, the authority which will have an initial contact with the child has the duty to immediately release the child to the parents or guardian, or in the absence thereof, the child's nearest relative. Said authority shall give notice to the local social welfare officer, who shall immediately investigate the case and report to the appropriate authority. If it is determined that the child is over fifteen (15) years old, the procedure provided under Section 15 shall be followed.
